

SMALL RIOT AT RECEPTION TO WILSON IN CHICAGO

Supporters Roughly Handle Women Engaged in "Silent" Demonstration

POLICE ENJOY IT

Waiters Seize Opportunity of Wilson Luncheon to Get Increased Wages

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—President Wilson came here today to express his view on problems facing the nation. He delivered three speeches here, participated in several street demonstrations and was met by thousands of people.

At his every appearance, the President was cheered by throngs which packed the streets during his automobile rides from place to place and filled to capacity the halls in which he spoke.

The "silent demonstration" by members of the National Woman's Party, in front of the auditorium, developed into a riot, in which banners opposing Wilson were torn from the demonstrators and trampled, and the women were roughly handled.

Charges that the police sympathized with the rioters and failed to protect the demonstrators were made by Mrs. Josephine Pearce and Mrs. E. L. Matrice, officials of local women Republican clubs.

There were all kinds of policemen shoving and merely looking on, not moving a hand," said Mrs. Pearce. "Some of them didn't seem to want to help us. I saw policemen deliberately stand nearby and laugh at us while we were being beaten and the banners torn from our hands."

"Purely Passive." We were merely standing, quietly holding our banners and not harming anyone. Suddenly there was a riot. They grabbed our banners, trampled on them, and knocked us down. It was terrible."

Negro waiters employed at the Press Club utilized the presence of President Wilson at lunch there to gain for themselves a raise in wages without investigation and without compromise. Just before the President was due to arrive, thirty special waiters who were to serve the luncheon put on their coats, preparatory to walking out. They had not asked for more pay but when stopped by the steward told him they had decided they must have a 50 per cent increase on the contract price before they would begin their duties. The advantage was theirs, and the increase was granted.

Mrs. Wilson accompanied the President. Dressed in black with a large bouquet of orchids and violets, she drew almost as much applause as the President.

Campaign Plans. Between his speeches to the women and his night address, the President went to the western Democratic headquarters and for the first time witnessed the details of the campaign in an effort to re-elect him. Senator Walsh, chairman of the headquarters, showed him just how the campaign is being carried on and then the President and Mrs. Wilson stood for half an hour shaking hands with all the headquarters workers, including the stenographers and mailing clerks.

Afterward the President had a brief conference with Senator Walsh and was told that a decided "swing" had set in in the west for the Democratic ticket.

At the meeting of women, the President was introduced by Mrs. Ella Flag Young, former superintendent of Chicago's schools, who declared he had kept the United States honorably at peace. Miss Jane Adams occupied a seat in the front.

The President defined his message to the women as follows: "Society is now organizing its whole power in order that it may understand itself, in order that it may have a new organization and instrument of civilization, and I am ambitious that America should show the way in this great enterprise." He did not touch on votes for women.

The President declared that some of the difficulties in the foreign relations of the United States have been due to the fact that other nations have not been civilized. "When the nations of the world come to love America," he said, "they will obey and follow America."

UNEARTH IMMENSE EVASION OF TAXES

Internal Revenue Bureau Officials Recover $22,509,576

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—How the internal revenue bureau has been paid all of its expenses during the past three years by collecting back taxes that had been fraudulently evaded was detailed in a statement issued tonight at the Treasury department.

The Treasury returns uncovered to date more than $50,000,000, much of which had been due for years. A total of $22,509,576 was recovered. The statement points out that this amount is greater by $2,700,000 than the entire cost of collecting the country's $1,308,000,000 of internal revenue during the three years.

About half of the total recovered came from corporations which had evaded the excise tax, the amount from that source being $11,226,660. Other items collected included $509,000 in evaded income taxes, $35,000 in evaded gift taxes, and $1,000,000 in compromises of minor evasions.

SIX CONVICTS DRIVE OUT OF SING SING

And Now the New Warden Is Wondering How It All Happened

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., Oct. 19.—Marquis Curtis, one of the six inmates of Sing Sing prison who escaped today in a prison truck, was shot and wounded tonight when guards from Sing Sing were searching for six escaped prisoners who were seen on the railroad tracks near country estate of John D. Rockefeller, at Pocantico Hills, near here.

Curtis had been convicted of the murder of Alfred Steinhardt, Curtis and Hyland were serving life terms. In his possession was found a revolver, fully loaded.

Curtis, who was serving a life term, was in civilian clothes when caught.

OSHING, N. Y., Oct. 19.—Riding in a prison automobile truck, six inmates of Sing Sing drove past a guard and made their escape about noon today. Acting Warden Levin Derrick announced tonight. The finding of the abandoned truck a half hour after the escape gave the first intimation that the men, all of whom were serving sentences from 15 years to life, had fled.

Acting Warden Derrick, who took charge of the prison only this week, upon the resignation of Thomas Mott Osborne, said that Richard Hyler, the guard at the prison gate, through which the truck passed, had been suspended pending an investigation.

The convicts who are at Liberty are Marquis Curtis, Thomas Hyland, Wm. Tammany, Frank Lutz, Wm. Anson and Alfred Steinhardt. Curtis and Hyland were serving life terms.

The truck, which is supposed to be used exclusively inside the prison walls, was driven by a convict who wore the uniform of a guard. Another man, while the four others were being taken to the truck, the guard, Warden Derrick said, did not stop the truck nor look to see what it carried.

NATION BULLIED BY JAPAN AND BRITAIN, SAYS BEVERIDGE

Points to Administration's Failure to Maintain U. S. Rights

PACIFIC ISSUES

People of Coast Viciously Interested in Strength of National Dignity

(Special to The Republican.) LOS ANGELES, Oct. 19.—Questions of vital import to the Pacific Coast were discussed this evening by Albert J. Beveridge, former United States Senator. Having familiarized himself with local conditions, he prepared a speech, with the control of the Pacific—the ocean of the future—prominently in mind.

After reiterating his belief that the world has been transformed by the war so that all the fundamental agencies of industrial activity must be reconstituted by new business liberated from local interference and put under national supervision, he pleaded for the humanities which, he said, must be recognized by national statute.

Plunging into a discussion of our foreign business relations, he said that the flag is seldom seen in the Pacific. He said that the East has been destroyed and that the administration is ready to abandon the Philippines. The doctrine of the open door in China, he added, had been forgotten and, with the Oriental markets closed to us, we would gather up a surplus of production that would result in hard times.

At England's Command. He attacked the Wilson policy of appealing the law that gave to American ships the right of free passage through the Panama Canal and said that our conduct in this measure had been dictated by England.

He insisted that it was our duty to restore government in Mexico, or other nations, after the European war, would do it. He stated that we should do for Mexico what we had done for the Philippines, and that might be done now, with comparative ease and peace, but must be done eventually, no matter what the cost.

Then Yielded to Japan. He declared that we had surrendered our sovereignty to Japan in the immigration bill.

"Never in modern history did any nation yield its sovereignty to another as we have surrendered our sovereignty to Japan," he said. "The right of every nation to choose what aliens it will admit within itself and what aliens it will reject has up to the time of Woodrow Wilson been conceded by all nations to be a fundamental right and the supreme test of nationalhood."

The immigration bill contained a provision forbidding Japanese laborers to come into this country. The same law is on the statute books of Canada, Australia, New Zealand and other countries, and Japan did not object to the passage of those laws.

But Japan did object to the United States passing a similar statute; and in the twelfth hour the President, acting under the dictation of Japan, forced Congress to strike this section from the bill. He compelled Congress to do this with the threat of trouble with Japan if Congress failed to act as Japan desired.

"And everybody knows that, if the whole world had not come to understand the character of our administration, Japan would never have subjected us to this humiliation."

Postponing Evil Day. "Those of us who believe that all things for which civilized governments are established should be sacrificed in order to keep out of trouble for the time being, with a certainty of getting into greater trouble hereafter, should vote for Woodrow Wilson."

"On the other hand, those who believe that the American government, without bravado or bluster, should firmly stand for all those things for which civilized governments exist, and which every other modern nation, little and big, except our own, during the last four years has stood up and held, should vote for Charles Evans Hughes."

BREMEN LOST GERMANS AGREE

Second Commercial Diver Is One Month Overdue in America

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Loss of the German submarine merchantman Bremen virtually was conceded today by ranking Teutonic diplomats in position to be familiar with the movements of the vessel. The Bremen is now one month overdue.

It was admitted that German officials not only aches country but in Berlin were without information as to the fate of the Bremen. All they knew is that she set out for America from Bremerhaven and that she should have arrived at an American port some time in the middle of last month. It is regarded as doubtful that accurate information concerning the fate of the vessel will be available until after the close of the war, if then.

The disappearance of the Bremen will not cause abandonment of the project to send merchant submarines regularly from Germany to the United States, it was said. There appeared every reason to expect that another submarine would be sent to America in the near future. The project is that the United States should have a fleet of submarines which would be used to transport goods and passengers from Germany to the United States.

German officials in Washington do not believe the Bremen could have fallen into the hands of the British unless she was seen by them. They pointed out that the United States had a fleet of submarines which would be used to transport goods and passengers from Germany to the United States.

HUGHES RE-AFFIRMS HIS POSITION ON LUSITANIA

Says Administration Cannot Understand Doing as Well as Saying

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, Oct. 19.—Charles E. Hughes, reiterating that he meant what he said in Louisville the other night about the Lusitania, tonight replied to a recent utterance of Secretary McAdoo, with the declaration that apparently it seemed impossible to the administration that one could mean what he says. That is his difficulty. With it, a threat of action does not seem to mean anything but words. My position is somewhat different.

"I mean what I say, and because this would have been well known and we should already have had a reputation for firm and correct politics, I repeat that the Lusitania would not have been sunk."

Baker on Valley Forge

Hughes spoke before an audience in the theater here. He also replied to a statement attributed to Secretary of War Baker in a recent speech, in which Washington's soldiers in the march to Valley Forge in the days of the American revolution were said to be just as bad characters as the Mexicans.

"I never supposed the day would come," Mr. Hughes said, "when the representative of an American administration would say that of those who gave us our liberty."

After quoting the statement attributed to Secretary Baker, Mr. Hughes read from Secretary Lansing's description, in June last, of the atrocities in Mexico, contained in a note to the de facto government of Mexico. Mr. Lansing's recital of the civil strife in Mexico, with attendant loss of American life and destruction of American property, and that portion of the note relating to the Santa Ysabel massacre, were read by Mr. Hughes verbatim.

"An administration imbued with the spirit of true Americanism," Mr. Hughes said, "could not possibly be the statement attributed to the secretary of war. It must bring the blush of shame to the cheek of every American that apologizes for the deplorable record in Mexico should have been made after this fashion."

Mr. Hughes' speech here tonight was the last of his third presidential campaign trip. He left here at 11 p. m. for New York, where he is due tomorrow afternoon. The day was spent with traveling, with three short addresses at Bay City, Saginaw and Flint, Mich. It is raining and the damp weather affected the nominee's voice.

ROOSEVELT RECALLS CARRIZAL PATRIOTS

Condemns "Safety First" Policies of Present Administration

EMPIRIA, Kansas, Oct. 19.—Then-President Roosevelt, speaking in a driving rainstorm here tonight, adjured a large Kansas audience not to forget the sacrifices for America made by Carrizal and Lieutenants Adair who were killed by Mexicans at Carrizal. He declared that five years ago he would not have believed that red-blooded Americans would sit still when soldiers, acting under orders of the president of the United States were killed.

"I am pleading with you for an America that you and I can be proud of," he declared. "For an America of the future that will not be a hiss and a byword among the nations of the earth."

"If Abraham Lincoln had kept us out of war there would have been no free state of Kansas," Colonel Roosevelt asserted. "If our forefathers had believed in 'Safety first' there would be no United States today. The course is nauseating to a patriot acquainted with the history of our country."

Mr. Roosevelt was introduced by William Allen White. Tonight he continued his journey into the southwest to speak in Albuquerque and Phoenix, Ariz. in the interest of the Republican campaign.

BOTH STORMS IN EAST BLOWN OVER

Normal Temperatures Upset; East Warmer, Middle West Wintry

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Both of the storms that swept into the United States yesterday, one from the Gulf and one out of the north, went, had spread out and almost disappeared tonight after unbalancing temperatures throughout most of the country.

"Throughout the east it was uniformly warmer than normal by ten to fourteen degrees today," said the central weather bureau. "The first cold front, which was the coldest place on the weather map, with a temperature of eight degrees above zero. A snow-storm blanketed the Missouri valley as far south as southwestern Missouri. The cold wave is expected to hit the east by tomorrow night."

4 Dead; Damage $100,000

MOBILE, Ala., Oct. 19.—Reports late today from hurricane swept districts of west and central Alabama told of a toll in Wednesday's storm to four and the property damage to $100,000. Andalgia, near the Florida line, appears to have been the chief sufferer. There many buildings were unroofed and several residences were blown down.

First reports of the damage in Mobile and Pensacola were approximately correct. The loss was confined chiefly to unroofed buildings and broken windows. There were several marine disasters.

OIL STRIKERS VOTE TO RETURN TO WORK

Companies Agree to Arbitrate Demands If Men Return

BAYONNE, N. J., Oct. 19.—Striking employees of the Standard Oil Company and several other companies operating plants here voted tonight to return to work tomorrow. Earlier in the day John J. Moffitt and James A. Smyth, United States mediators, had secured a committee representing the men that the companies had expressed a willingness to negotiate demands for increased wages and better working conditions if the workers would return.

The strike, which began ten days ago and was marked by rioting in which three persons were killed and many others wounded, affected plants of several oil companies. While only about 2,500 of the men actually went on strike, it was said approximately 5,000 others were thrown out of work.

The strikers demand a thirty percent increase in wages for all those receiving under $10 a day and 20 percent increase for those receiving more than $10 a day, together with better working conditions. The companies refused to deal with the men while they were on strike, holding that they could not negotiate with workers who were not in their employ.

SMALL RAILROADS ARE FACING RUIN

AUSTIN, Texas, Oct. 19.—Many small railroads in this state will be forced out of business, in the opinion of witnesses testifying in district court here today, unless they are permitted to participate in the new higher rates which have been promulgated to go into effect November 1. The witnesses testified during the presentation of the case of three small railroads which the state is seeking to enjoin from charging rates in excess of those now in effect. Attorneys for the state argued that the proposed rates were discriminatory, and that the roads had entered into an unlawful agreement.

Argument in the case will be continued tomorrow.

FOOTBALL PLAYER SHOWS INFANTILE PARALYSIS SIGNS

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 19.—Members of the first and second Harvard football squads were played under a partial quarantine tonight as a result of the discovery that Edwin Glavin of Winchester, half back on the second team, had apparently developed symptoms of infantile paralysis.

The football game with Massachusetts Agricultural college, arranged for next Saturday, will be played. The Agricultural college authorities having decided not to cancel the contract.

In addition to the football squads, associates of Glavin in Claverly Hall, on the so-called "gold coast," are under partial quarantine restrictions.

PRICE OF FLOUR GOES UP AGAIN

Chicago Baker Vainly Seeks Chance to Obtain Investigation

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Recent advances in the prices of wheat and flour prompted B. H. Dahlheimer, president of the Master Bakers' Association of Chicago, to make an effort today to present an appeal to President Wilson to take steps to meet the crisis which the bakers say will follow. Dahlheimer and several members of the local association tried to see the President at his hotel, but were denied admittance.

Later Dahlheimer said: "The President's attendants refused to let me see President Wilson, and therefore I shall present the protest to our congressmen, Martin R. Madden. Something should be done to meet the advancing prices of wheat and flour, as it involves a higher price for bread as an inevitable consequence. I acted today with the approval of officers of our association, but as soon as possible a meeting of the association will be held at which formal protest will be drafted against the manipulation which we believe is responsible for the soaring prices of wheat and flour."

NEW CAMPAIGN AGAINST VILLA

General Carlos Ozuna to Be Leader in War on Bandits

CHIHUAHUA CITY, Mexico, Oct. 19, via El Paso Junction.—All details have been completed for the new campaign against the commands of Francisco Villa and Jose Ynez Salazar, in Western Chihuahua.

This column, under General Carlos Ozuna, is ready to entrain at the Mexico Southern station for Santa Ysabel, which is the field base for the operations by the Carranza forces against Villa's commands. There are 500 well equipped men at Santa Ysabel which will join Ozuna's forces upon their arrival there and proceed westward San Antonio and Guerrero.

Martial law being enforced here and many arrests are being made. The return from El Paso of Mrs. Trevino, wife of General Trevino, has increased public confidence in the ability of the garrison here to withstand any attacks from Villa forces.

Yaquis Surrender

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Oct. 19.—One thousand Yaqui Indians have sent a message to General D. Elias Calle, military commander of Sonora, offering to surrender. He granted amnesty and permitted to join the Carranza army, according to articles from Sonora.

General Calle decided to accept and then sent a detachment to the spot designated by Chief Cajine, who is said to be in command of the Indians to conclude the negotiations.

It was surmised in official circles in Agua Prieta that this was a ruse intended to be sent through Douglas Pass into Chihuahua against Villa.

OLD QUARREL ENDS IN DOUBLE TRAGEDY

MAITHFIELD, Oregon, Oct. 19.—G. C. Treadgold, an attorney of Brandon, was shot and instantly killed tonight in a public garage at Council Bluffs, Iowa, by Joseph A. Randolph, who afterward shot himself through the head.

Some several years ago inherited a considerable fortune from the estate of his father, a wealthy timber man. With a portion of the money he embarked in the saloon business. Two years ago he was prosecuted for selling liquor to minors. Treadgold conducting the prosecution. Yesterday Mrs. Couch filed suit for divorce, and Couch told friends that Treadgold was her attorney, although it was found later that this was incorrect.

WILL ENGLAND PUT STOP TO AID FOR BELGIANS?

If Germans Continue to Force Belgians to Work?

Great Difficulty for American Relief to Stay Neutral

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Suggestions in England for curtailment of the work of the Belgian relief commission because supplies might reach Belgium whose services had been commandeered by Germany, have been called unofficially to the attention of the State department, but the subject has not been taken up diplomatically.

The State department is anxious to do all it can to prevent any misunderstanding which would cripple the work of the commission, but it is realized that from the beginning the status of the organization has been extremely delicate, in that it stands between two determined groups of belligerents.

The possibility of an outbreak of an act appearing unneutral, has been so great that the commission has acted with the most extreme care.

The natural incompleteness of English knowledge about what has been transpiring in Belgium and the realization that Germany would not permit only what she felt to be her rights has given rise to a constant fear that either side might unwittingly precipitate a situation which would make a continuance of relief work hazardous.

JUSTICE RATHER THAN COWARDICE

Is Praised as Test of Man Who Will Be Friend of Labor

SANTA ANA, Oct. 19.—Mrs. Raymond Robins and three others of the Hughes women's auxiliary party, left behind in Los Angeles temporarily by the special train which went to San Diego and is now on its way to Phoenix, Ariz., concluded tonight a day of speeches at universities, industrial plants, of hotel and an open air gathering, with a public meeting here in a theater.

Hughes' attitude toward labor was compared with President Wilson's course in the threatened strike of trainmen by Mrs. Robins, who had a number of the day's Justice Hughes when hearing arguments on the constitutionality of the Oregon minimum wage law.

"When the attorney for vested interests ridiculed the idea of the government controlling the wages of labor, before the highest tribunal in the country," she said, "Justice Hughes asked the lawyer if he wanted the court to understand there should be no regulation of wages to prevent those poorly paid from receiving unjust compensation."

"That remark of Mr. Hughes honestly reflected his opinion on the subject in a manner not forced by any threats, such as crushed the Adamson law through Congress and a member of a large federated trades union organization, and as an executive, I prefer the calm, equitable methods that have characterized Mr. Hughes' efforts on behalf of labor, to those of those who have taken a poor expedient as a makeshift."

In Los Angeles, Mrs. Robins refused a detail of police asked to escort her by the local committee, because she said, audiences everywhere had respected her views and she had no fear of hostile demonstrations.

The day's program was enhanced by three meetings, it was stated, by Mrs. E. R. Bruhn, chairman of the arrangements committee in Los Angeles, after the campaigners arrived there and "conquered" her way through to the "wisdom of the trip" of which she said, she previously had been skeptical.

CANNOT NOW ALLOW SOLDIERS' FURLOUNDS

Secretary of War Says All Men Now Needed for National Defense

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Need of all available soldiers in the regular army for active service caused Secretary Duggan to deny an application for furloughs to the reserve, which, under the national defense act, may be requested by men who have served one year with the colors.

The official order reads: "Under the present unusual conditions which have caused the concentration of so large a part of the army and the mobilization of most of the regular army reserve, the secretary does not believe that approval of furloughs to the regular army reserve after one year's honorable service is justified. Applications for furloughs will be forwarded until further instructions."

It has been held by army law experts that furlough of enlisted men to the reserve rests upon the discharge of the secretary and is a privilege which, under normal conditions, shall be readily granted to soldiers of exemplary character and who have acquired such proficiency in the service as to render them thoroughly dependable for service in case of war.

Let "Poor Little Rich Child" Play With Kiddies, Is Plea

RAYMOND L. QUIGLEY,
Superintendent of Playground Department.

A great deal has been said about the poor little child, but not so much regarding the poor little rich child who so often is shut off in a big yard by himself to the tune of his many pretty toys through pure loneliness. He runs to the fence and climbs up on it to watch the "less fortunate" boys on their return from play at the City Playgrounds, or at least some place where children get together and enjoy each other's companionship.

Regardless of better clothes and better food, still it generally appears that the poor child is the "heartier" and happier. "Why is it, parents?" If you value your children's future welfare, do not shut them off from other children. I do not mean simply for physical development but for mental development and social development as well. Social instinct is so and nature to children and should be given a chance to develop. They should have the opportunity to get together for group games, where the spirit of fair play, initiative and self reliance are brought out in a way that positively nothing else can bring out. Childhood is the proper and only time these traits can be developed properly.

The spontaneous instincts, as they show themselves, should be allowed to thrive and grow, which is just what they cannot do if the child is shut off in a yard by himself.

Playgrounds give the child a chance to learn courage and self-control, and it will be noticed that play fosters that feeling of co-operation which is necessary to get the best out of life.

If you give your child's social instinct a chance to develop through play, he will gain that education which he needs in after life to be a congenial part in society as a whole.

FIRST AID LESSONS TAUGHT BY THE WAR.

Hull in his book, "Surgery in War," gives conclusions based on experience with the badly infected wounds encountered in this war. The methods of treating wounds are applicable in those factories and farms where wounds are commonly badly infected as shown by the way they turn out.

The first aid package should be applied at once either by the wounded man or by a comrade. The first aid package consists of a cyanide gauze pad fixed to a bandage. The object of this dressing is to prevent the wound from becoming further infected by the clothing and by dirt from the surroundings. Hull says the epitome, "The patient's life is in the hands of the man who applies the first field dressing," is no longer true. The reason is that the wound is already infected when the dressing is applied.

At first the soldiers were provided with ampoules of 2 per cent iodine to sterilize the wounds, but it was found that this was impossible in the field. A better application was found to be hypochlorous acid powder dusted in the wound. However, in badly infected wounds it is best to apply the first aid dressing without using the antiseptic. In the earlier stages of the war blood was done by leaving the first aid package on too long, the theory being that the wound was aseptic.

As soon as the patient can be gotten into an ambulance or hospital the first aid dressing is removed, the wound cleaned, and a new dressing applied. If the wound is small and fairly clean, all blood and dirt, and shreds of tissue are removed and the wound and the surrounding skin is painted with 2 per cent iodine. The skin around is greased with sterile vasoline. A dressing of cyanide gauze is applied.

For deeper wounds iodine is not satisfactory. To disinfect these the Russians are using compounds which they call eucal and encol. To make eucal mix equal quantities finely ground bleaching powder and powdered boracic acid. The bleaching powder must be taken from stock kept in closed containers. Eucal must be kept tightly sealed. When this powder is dusted in a wound it yields chlorine, which sterilizes the wounded surfaces.

Encol is 50 grains (3.25 grams) of eucal are shaken up with one liter (one quart) of water, allowed to stand for a few hours, then filtered through cloth or filter paper. The wound can be washed out with the solution and then covered with gauze, or the solution can be allowed to flow through the wound for a while, and then a gauze dressing is applied.

Carrel runs drainage tubes into all parts of the wound and continuously irrigates the depths of the wounds with a Murphy drip. This is kept up until the wound has become sterile. This is the Carrel method.

The Wright method of treating badly infected wounds differs from the Carrel method in that he irrigates the wound with salt solution. The wound is first washed with the encol solution, then an apparatus is fitted up so that there may be a steady continuous flow into the depths of the wound and out again. The irrigation commences with the use of 5 per cent salt solution. When the wound becomes clean normal salt solution is substituted. If the wound is very dirty 10 per cent salt solution is used.

Is Unusual

H. N. writes: "Please tell me what is the matter when a tooth is pulled and does not heal up for three or four weeks, the jaw gets sore and lame, the tonsil or something near it gets sore and aches; also a foul salty taste comes from the wound. That is the way the first one acted; finally healed up."

To make sure this trouble did not repeat all care was taken for fear infection had caused the trouble. In the second tooth pulling, but with all the precaution the results are the same; five days and not healed, jaw very sore and also tonsil, dirty salty taste coming from the wound.

"This same patient complains of an ache in any part that gets struck a smart blow, like catching a ball, does not sting naturally, but aches for some time. Is there any bone or muscular disease, do you know?"

REPLY: I do not know why these take place. The gums should heal within a few days. Infection of a socket, from which a tooth has been drawn, very rarely happens. Is this patient syphilitic? Has a Wassermann test been made? If not, make one.

Growing Pains
To settle a dispute in our class in eighth grade, will you inform me through your column whether there is any ground for the idea that a child has growing pains during development from infancy to adult age?

REPLY: So-called growing pains are rheumatic pains. The most frequent cause of these pains is bad tonsils.

Fattening Food

M. H. writes: "I would like to know if pure olive oil is fattening, or how it should be taken? I have a very good appetite but keep very thin. I don't go outdoors very much; am a poor sleeper; the least thing disturbs my night's sleep. Is it unusual fattening?"

REPLY: 1. While olive oil is very good food it is not the best fattening food. The probability is that when you eat olive oil you burn it into heat and energy. To get fat, eat a good quantity of bread, potatoes, meat, vegetables and fruit, and in addition eat a bowl of milk and bread or rice with sugar.

2. No.

MAN WITH AFFINITY DIVORCED BY WIFE

Mrs. Decker Said Spouse
Admitted He Was Not True to Her

Claiming that her husband told her that he was not true to her and would not be true to any other woman, and that he did not understand why she stood for him so long, was a part of the testimony given before Judge Austin yesterday by Mrs. Bernice A. Decker, who was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce. Mrs. Decker said that her husband, Ralph Decker, had an affinity in Mrs. Agnes Johnson, a dancer and that he often chided her about Mrs. Johnson, being a grand woman, a good cook and that she knew how to entertain. Mrs. Decker said that her husband took other women out riding and that he would not take her any place unless she asked him and that he often told her to go ahead and get a divorce and that he would pay the costs. Mrs. Decker was granted the custody of a minor child. Decker is interested in a garage in Sanger.

DR. H. O. BREEDEN BACK FROM EASTERN TRIP

Pastor Was Delegate to Christian Convention
in Des Moines

Dr. H. O. Breeden, pastor of the First Christian church, returned yesterday from Des Moines, Ia., where he attended the International Convention of the Churches of Christ as a delegate from the Fresno Christian church. "My trip was in the nature of a homecoming," said Dr. Breeden last night, "as for twenty-two years I occupied the pulpit of the Central Church of Christ in Des Moines. While in Des Moines I met fully a thousand of my former parishioners and last Sunday morning I again filled the pulpit I had occupied for so many years."

Dr. Breeden made four addresses while attending the convention, one at Drake University, the college of the Church of Christ, one at a convention banquet, and two before the convention sessions. Over 2000 delegates from all parts of the United States, Canada and some foreign countries were in attendance at the convention, which included all branches of the Christian church.

A report of the convention will be given to the congregation at the morning service next Sunday. One of the most significant features of the entire convention, Dr. Breeden says, was the final communion service at the close of the convention at which 10,000 were communicants.

"CYCLONIC" EVA TANGUAY DISPLAYS HAPPINESS TONIGHT

Eva Tanguay, who makes people happy—at White Theater tonight, in big performance

Eva Tanguay, the irrepressible, the cyclonic, the girl who has made the world know what it is to be happy, and when you know what it is you will agree that it is the finest mission in the world. When she sings "Folks believe I'm crazy, but I don't care," don't you believe it literally. Tanguay at heart is a very serious, brilliant, lovely little person, and her "mission" as she calls it, is immensely real and impressive to her.

GIVING OUT

The Struggle Discourages Many a Citizen of Fresno

Around all day with an aching back. Can't rest at night. Enough to make any one "give out." Dean's Kidney Pills are helping thousands. They are for kidney backache. And other kidney ills. Here is Fresno proof of their merit: C. M. Lindstrom, 219 Howard St., Fresno, says: "I think the lathering and jolting of the cars is what weakened my kidneys and brought on kidney complaint. Many times, when I tried to stoop, sharp pains caught me in the small of my back and I could hardly move. I had pains in the back of my head and dizzy spells. Dean's Kidney Pills gave me beneficial results." Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Dean's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Lindstrom had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

her own words as she gave it to an interviewer: "My mission is to make people happy. I want to set them screaming with laughter—over nothing but the crazy joy of life. I want to have them go home feeling that this funny old world is a pretty good sort of place to live in. I want to scatter good cheer about—just as I do the pennies in one of my songs—only not everyone gets the pennies, and every one just must get the good cheer."

"And I'd like people to understand that I'm quite serious about my work. They think I'm not, 'cause—'cause I'm sort of crazy, and haven't much sense, and I don't care. But I am, just as serious as any actress, or any worker, could be."

"Every one has his work in this world. Well, I've got mine. It's happiness. That's what my work is—just jolly, human, chummy happiness. I do so want to give people a good time. When I go on the stage I feel like calling right out to every one: 'Come on, let's have some fun together. It's a jolly old world to give a good time in; let's all be friends.' I feel like calling out to every one that life's a big bark, if they'll only see it that way."

"And do you know a secret? Why, my acting, my songs and dances and all—it's just that. I'm happy. I'm awfully happy. I dance and sing and carry on like a cyclone—or a blizzard—because I'm just sort of bubbling over with the knowledge that life's a bark. And people, do like it, don't they? It makes them happier, don't you think?"

Eva Tanguay and the Morris Vaudeville Co. will appear at the White theater tonight for one performance only.

A World of Pleasure

The biggest musical event of the present theatrical season is booked for Sunday night at the White theater, when "A World of Pleasure," the sensational New York Winter Garden Musical extravaganza, will be seen in Fresno.

The entire original company of 125 players who were in the New York and Chicago runs will be seen here. Harold Atteridge is the author of the book and lyrics of the play; Signmund Romberg wrote the music; J. C. Huffman staged it; Jack Mason put on the dancing and Theodore Kosloff arranged the ballets. The play is in two acts and nine huge scenes which are laid in New York City. There are over 40 musical numbers of latest music in "A World of Pleasure." Among the principal members of the great cast are such well known entertainers as William Morris, Conroy and Le Maire, Collins and Hart, the Courtney Sisters, Wanda Lizon, Margaret Edwards, Franklin Batie, McMahon, Diamond and C. apow, and dainty Rose Quinn. The chorus is one of the largest ever seen in a big musical show, and is composed of the handsomest girls ever presented outside of New York City.

VAUDEVILLE AT THEATER
FRESNO OF HIGH MERIT

Tonight starts the second week of vaudeville at the Theater Fresno and Manager Frank L. Hesse states that the new show will be an interesting review of exceptional acts, coupled with exciting photo films and mirthful screen comedy.

In order to repeat the success of last week the booking representative for the Theater Fresno has chosen the coming bill with considerable care and his judgment of variety entertainment has been amply justified in the clever feature acts that will make their first and only appearance in Fresno this evening.

Out from the east and direct from notable triumphs in Chicago come pretty Lily Lewis, with entirely original dance conceptions that are bound to make her a prime favorite at the Theater Fresno.

Plenty of Music
On New Program

The vaudevillians who will be with us Friday, Saturday and Sunday of this week are a peculiarly musical lot, indulging in melody of every sort, yet there is one team that fairly bubbles over with classical and ragtime harmony. In fact this act is known far and wide by the simple title, "The Three Harmony Kings," as their music consists entirely of melody and wholesome comedy.

Collins and Lee are also coming with a unique music act that is delivered by the artistic dancing of this duo.

World Greatest Ventriloquist Coming Tonight

One of the chief features of this week's show will be the ventriloquist entertainment by the Hugh Emmett Company. Mr. Emmett is undoubtedly the most mystifying of all ventriloquists and has an act that is decidedly original.

Another brilliant feature for the current week is the excellent jumble of eccentric comedy offered by the world renowned Gallons. This troupe has occupied the place of honor on many vaudeville programs throughout the "big time" circuits of the east and are noted for their juggling proclivities.

Photo drama and film comedy will enhance the pleasure of the new show. The Theater Fresno and the Theater of Eugene B. Brown, will punctuate each performance with delightful musical selections.

Matinees will be given Saturday and Sunday afternoons.

"LAND O' LIZARDS" IS SUPERB PHOTOPLAY

Anna Little Shines in Role of Boy at Fresno
Photo

"Land o' Lizards," a tale of the rugged western country—a land where the rule of might is the law—a gold hunter, outlaws and ranchers, tangled in the plot, replete with color, tensity dramatic situations. Best describes the latest production from the American studios, now playing at the Fresno Photo.

Anna Little Plays Part of Boy

It is filled from start to finish with the thrill of physical encounter, the pitting of wit against physical force, of the life of the open.

More than that, it is filled from beginning almost to end with Anna Little, as a boy, just the sort of graceful, self-contained boy that one would expect the popular little star to be. And in it, too, is Frank Borgeas, whose characterizations of red-blooded western roles has won him wide vogue.

Filmed in Arizona

For the screening of this five-act play the company spent several weeks in the hilly regions of Northern Arizona. The striking backgrounds furnished by this location, the rocky passes, the beautiful trees, the hills and valleys form a setting of almost unrivaled beauty.

It's a photodrama of a proven type, one of the kind that has come to be staple in the demand.

Of course it all ends happily—but there is plenty of suspense before the finish.

Visit to Lake Placid With Mutual Cameramen

"See America First," the Mutual scenic picture, shows the beauties and popular playgrounds of the Adirondacks.

We are taken on a special trip to Lake Placid, Saranac Lake, and Paul Smith's Lake. The fact that it is visited annually by so many thousands, and is known by reputation to millions, makes a particularly happy selection for the screen.

HOLD FUNERAL OF JOHN KNOTT

The funeral of John Knott, a resident of Fresno county since 1882, was held from Stephens & Bean's chapel, Wednesday, Rev. McNulty of the Episcopal Church of Clovis officiating. Interment was in the carpenter's plot in Mountain View cemetery. The deceased was a native of Norfolk, England.

KIDDIES AND BEAUTY SPOTS ATTRACT AT THE KINEMA

Louise Huff, in one of those direct tales that appeal because of simplicity—Kinema

After the strong meat of the past week at the Kinema, the same referring to "The Wolf Woman" and "The Despoiler," a dish of ice-cream is served out today in one of those sweet, appealing stories that wraps tenderly around the heart, and makes one glad that the sun still shines. There is a welcome freshness about this dainty play, and all the more acceptable because of the contrast with the terrific plays during the early part of the week.

Louise Huff and Lottie Pickford

The two stars are delighted to look upon. Both Miss Huff and Lottie Pickford are fresh with the youth of life, while those delightful ladies help to make the bright spots. In short, this may be called a beauty play, abounding as it does with beautiful scenes, and above all, a most entrancingly beautiful story. There's nothing red-blooded about it—on the contrary, it is more like roses and roses. It is one of those charming blooms of youth. And everyone loves youth and beauty.

Next Week Brings Three Wonder Plays

Next week brings three contrasting plays, with all the variety that the theatergoer likes. First comes Norma Talmadge in a comedy the like of which, in its novel twist, the Kinema has not had as yet. Then comes William Farum, in a powerful Kentucky feud drama—full of the outdoors and mountain life. The wind-up of next week brings James Oliver Curwood's famous "God's Country and the Woman," a massive eight-act play of the vast Northwest.

World's Baseball Games and Ambrose in a Whirlwind Keystone Today

And Tomorrow

The Hearst News today has scenes taken from the third world's championship baseball games. This was the game won by Brooklyn. Then, too, comes "Ambrose's Rapid Rise." The title is sufficient to give an idea of the kind of Keystone this comedy is. Action, laughs and surges of delight are spread all over this Keystone—just the kind of stuff to forget the worries of the week's work.

PLAN RAILWAY LINE TO TULARE LAKE GRAIN BELT

Project Is Started at Corcoran to Construct Line Twenty Miles to West

Prominent Men Are Interested; Believed Santa Fe Is Behind Movement

HANFORD, Oct. 19.—Plans are on foot in Corcoran for the construction of a railway, twenty miles in length, to tap the lake bottom grain fields. The matter of granting the franchise to construct a line through the city limits was before the Corcoran board of trustees at its last meeting and the city attorney was instructed to draw up a franchise and present it at its next meeting of the board.

The tentative plan for construction begins at the southwest corner of the city of Corcoran. From there the line would run to the Los Pinos ranch, a southerly direction, touching the land owned by the C. W. Gates, Frank Cleveland and Jess Stoddard interests as well as by the El Chico reclamation project.

Besides the grain that would be carried by the railway, the best farmers would also be saved many miles of hauling if the proposed line is constructed. James Cornwell, who put the matter of the franchise before the board, stated that the Santa Fe capital had been promised for the construction of the line, and that he hoped to see it built before next June.

Those interested in the line are said to be the principal landowners in the area, including Cornwell, Frank Cleveland, Jess Stoddard, C. W. Gates and possibly the Santa Fe reclamation itself, the Santa Fe being largely interested in lake bottom lands through its holding in Kings County Development Company.

CONCOURSE ATTENDS FUNERAL OF SOLDIER

Last Rites Are Held in Selma for Private Geo. Shifflett

SELMA, Oct. 19.—The Methodist church was crowded today with friends who gathered for the funeral services of George Shifflett, whose tragic death at the soldier camp at Nogales came as a shock to Selma friends. Dean McDonald of Selma, who served as chaplain, and who knew the deceased before his enlistment, was in charge of the services and paid personal tribute to the young soldier's conduct while under his observation, stating that Shifflett was one whom he remembered among the numbers of men who were called together in the camp. The dean was assisted by Rev. D. K. Burnham and Rev. L. Harter of this city. Military tribute was paid by the attendance of about twenty soldiers from Fresno and other troops who preceded the return of the company. Music was rendered by a mixed quartet. The pallbearers were chosen from among Shifflett's schoolmates as follows: Roy C. Giggas, William O. Stacey, Roy Johnson, James Armstrong, Dean McDonald, Fred Mulligan, Dean McDonald conducted the regular church services at the grave, and taps were sounded by the fellow soldiers. The floral pieces were particularly beautiful. Prominent among these was a floral arrangement which was sent by the Ladies Auxiliary. In addition to these, many friends here expressed their sympathy to the family, and their esteem of the deceased by a profusion of floral offerings.

No further news is being given out at this time relative to the investigation which is being conducted by the family to satisfy themselves as to the true cause of death. It is known that they are not satisfied with accounts which have been reported to them, and they have employed counsel and assistance in conducting an independent inquiry, hoping to place the responsibility where it belongs. In several matters which seem to them to be irregular as to the death, and subsequent happenings.

HUMAN SKELETON IS FOUND NEAR BORDEN

Bones of Unidentified Man Discovered Under An Old Warehouse

MADERA, Oct. 19.—A human skeleton was discovered this afternoon at the grain warehouse, on the railroad near Borden station by George Tobit, who manages the Woodson ranch near there. Tobit had traveled under the building after a chicken. Further investigation revealed the skeleton of a man who had evidently lain down under the warehouse and remained himself in a blanket, and had died, probably several months ago. There was nothing found about the skeleton by which identification might be made. Sheriff Lewis and Coroner Jay were notified, and removed the remains. The body was found in a hole in the wall, which indicated the man was past middle life, and a San Francisco newspaper of December 5, 1915, was found near the skeleton, which probably fixes the time of death somewhere near that date. The skeleton will be interred tomorrow at Arbor Vitae cemetery, by the county.

RATTLESNAKE BITES HUNTER AT CORCORAN

O. C. Johnson of Lindsay May Lose Leg as Result of Attack by Reptile

HANFORD, Oct. 19.—O. C. Johnson of Lindsay is at the hospital here in a very serious condition as the result of a rattlesnake bite which he received while hunting ducks on Wednesday. Johnson, who with his brother was hunting on the southeastern part of the lake, was wading through some low grass on a miniature island when he was bitten on the leg. He had been struck by a rattlesnake, but looking down, he saw the snake strike again.

Johnson was taken to Corcoran as quickly as possible, where the wound was given first aid. It was then in a bad state, and the length of time that it had gone without treatment, Dr. C. T. Ross of this city was called into consultation upon arrival. Johnson ordered Johnson removed to the sanitarium here at once.

The leg is in a bad state and it is feared that it will be necessary to amputate it. This evening Johnson's condition was reported to be unchanged.

Evans sang "At Dawning," and "Love You Truly," and Miss Mae O'North of San Francisco, a cousin of the bride, presided at the piano. Miss Francis Roche, violinist, played "Traumerl," with piano accompaniment. The ushers, in full evening dress, were, George Leland, John Leland, Bernard Sundin and Irwin Krone, and they were joined at the altar by the groom and best man, Seymour Nutt. The four bridesmaids followed, robed in French tulle over radiant cloths with veils of tulle fastened with autumn leaves. The bridesmaids' gowns were in the colors of the rainbow. They were Misses Eugenia Irwin, Nina Daniels, Hilda Goodwin of Exeter, and Mary Lyons. Following the bridesmaids came the little ring-bearer, Dorothy Lyons, who was followed by the flower girls, Miss Irwin and Roberta Robertson, dressed in tulle in the rainbow shades and bearing gold baskets filled with rose petals which they scattered in the path of the bride, who approached the altar with the arm of her best man.

Miss Hess was charmingly attired in bride's satin, embroidered in rope silk and pearl over a foundation of silver-lace, while the bodice was of iridescent, cloth ornamented with head-tails. The train of the gown was of tulle and the bride veil, a gift of the groom's mother, was of Tenebris lace, and was worn with a breath of orange blossoms.

Rev. S. C. Keetch of Exeter, grandfather of the bride, performed the rite. While Rev. George S. Warner offered prayer. Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the reception room of the church, where refreshments were served. ## BANQUET, DANCE AND SPEECHES FEATURE GOOD ROADS RALLY

C. F. Stern of State Highway Commission Talks on Better Roads; Says People Now Have "Road-mania"; Hopes It Becomes Chronic

Several hundred staunch supporters of the Fresno county good roads movement gathered in the big Municipal Auditorium last night and for six solid hours talked good roads, had good roads served to them between the courses of an excellent dinner, were wined and dined until past midnight, and then they went home, tired but happy, to their homes.

Starting with a banquet set on the balcony of the hall, the Fresno County Chamber of Commerce, through its entertainment committee, composed of Bart Harvey, George Holes and T. E. Collins, held the attention of the large audience from the moment of its arrival until "Home, Sweet Home" was played to the dancers.

Music and song and feature dancing was there in plenty, but by far the most interesting event of the evening was the address made on the ground floor of the auditorium by Charles F. Stern of Eureka, state highway commissioner, who was the special guest of the Chamber of Commerce, and who talked for almost an hour on the subject of good roads, state and county.

Stern did not confine his speech to a dry recital of good roads statistics, but gave a good, heart-to-heart talk that carried his listeners along throughout his entire speech without losing control. Numerous anecdotes enlivened his address, and at its conclusion the building rang for seconds with applause for the visitor.

Stern dwelt upon the great benefits to be derived by the farmer and merchant through the building of good roads, produced hard facts to demonstrate the value of good roads to the state and county, and coined a new phrase to describe the condition that is now prevalent throughout California.

"All Have Roadmanias"
"We are all suffering from roadmanias," he said. "That is a new disease I have come upon since assuming my duties on the state highway commission, and I am glad to say that I have found the majority of the people here as well as in the entire state suffering from it. It is a sort of epidemic, and I hope it keeps on spreading. I had stated the worst results are obtained, said they are all inoculated with the germs of this ailment. They are not suffering from it, for it is proving the means of bettering all their conditions. The harder it attacks them, the better for them. And when it becomes chronic, then the best results are obtained. I hope you will all get roadmanias and that it stays with you, becomes chronic, and so aids in this great movement for better roads."

"On the 15th of next month you will all go to the polls to decide the future welfare of this great country. You will vote on your choice for President."

COLBY AND JOHNSON, FRIENDS, BUT NOT IN POLITICS, MEET

Governor Has Warm Welcome for Colby; Each Boosts for Candidate

Governor Johnson and Bainbridge Colby, New York Progressive who is campaigning for President Wilson, met late Wednesday night at the Hotel Fresno for a few minutes. They are close personal friends.

Governor Johnson, who spoke in Fresno Wednesday night, drove to Fresno to meet Colby before he left for the Bay. Colby seconded Johnson's nomination for the vice presidency on the Progressive ticket in the 1912 convention.

The conversation of Johnson and Colby did not border on politics Wednesday night with the single exception that both voiced their sentiment in favor of their respective candidates for the presidency.

"I am strong for Hughes," said Johnson. "And my right arm has been working hard for Wilson," replied Colby, and the two men laughed and again shook hands.

Just before Colby left for the north he received a lettered telegram from Governor Johnson, which was sent from Bainbridge Colby to Governor Johnson expressing his desire of again meeting Colby, renewing their friendship and talking over Progressivism.

"Mighty nice to receive that message from the Governor of California when you are campaigning in his state for a Democratic President," said Colby.

"Mr. Colby and I are still the best of friends," said Governor Johnson after leaving the Wilson supporter, and our only difference is between Hughes and Wilson."

Highway Commissioner Stern spoke last night's affair was the commencement of a final rally by the county good roads boosters that will be carried out without stop until the day of election, Tuesday, October 24.

Every night in some part of the county the men who are giving their time to the roads campaign will gather to explain the reason why the new roads should be built.

At a meeting of the advisory committee yesterday a special committee was appointed to take charge of the transportation of voters from their homes or business places to their polling booths and back again. To do this a great many automobiles will be needed, a call has been sent out to all volunteers wishing to loan their cars for the good work.

The committee is made up of E. E. Marzheim, manager of the Farmers National Bank, and yesterday afternoon for some months his bank had been making mortgage loans at 7 per cent interest, and that he has at this time several hundred thousand dollars available to loan on this basis.

BANK OF ITALY CUTS RATE OF INTEREST TO 7 PER CENT

New Bank Has Million Dollars to Loan to Valley Farmers

RATE STANDARD REDUCED HERE

Deal for People's Savings Bank May Be Closed Today

The standard rate of interest of the Bank of Italy, Fresno branch, will be 7 per cent, according to an announcement made yesterday by A. P. Giannini, President, and P. C. Hale, vice president of the Bank of Italy. Notices have been sent to all of the present note holders announcing that at maturity 7 per cent would be the maximum charged on commercial and industrial loans. Giannini also announces that the Bank of Italy is ready to loan $1,000,000 in the San Joaquin Valley, and that, with a resource of $22,000,000, the banking institution is in a position to negotiate a loan of any magnitude.

With the entrance of the Bank of Italy into this city, the standard rate of interest has been lowered from 8 per cent to 7 per cent, and the announcement made yesterday by Giannini has resulted in a realignment of the interest rate.

Eight per cent was the standard local rate of interest, but for the last year or so in individual cases, loans have been made at reduced rates from 7 to 7 1/2 per cent, while large single loans have been obtained at 6 per cent and, in a few rare cases, under where the security was particularly good.

"We believe that in having a prosperous surrounding country the city will prosper," said Giannini yesterday, "and we also think that high rates of interest are ruinous to the farmers. We are here to make money, but we will not charge a high rate of interest. Seven per cent will be our maximum rate of interest, and farm mortgages at that rate will be considered first class. Myself and associates think that there is a great undeveloped field in the San Joaquin Valley, and that is the reason we are here. Fresno is as much our home as our bank in San Francisco, and we are going to do all possible in financial aid for the business man and the farmer."

Hale reached Fresno yesterday from San Francisco, but the deal for the purchase of People's Savings Bank was not closed. It is reported that the deal will likely be closed this afternoon.

Boys at 7 Per Cent
E. E. Marzheim, manager of the Farmers National Bank, said yesterday that for some months his bank had been making mortgage loans at 7 per cent interest, and that he has at this time several hundred thousand dollars available to loan on this basis.

PRINCIPALS DISCUSS PLAYGROUND LEAGUE

Formulate Rules for Conduct of School Baseball Contests

Principals of the various elementary and intermediate schools of the city met in the offices of the Playgrounds Commission yesterday afternoon to discuss matters pertaining to the Playground Ball League, which has been formed from the young stars of the various schools. Several questions regarding the regulation of the playground games were discussed, and the rules that are now in force were formally adopted, with the amendment that no gloves are to be used, and a soft ball 12 inches in circumference is to take the place of the regulation baseball. Should a boy have an injured hand, he may be allowed to use a glove on appeal to the board of arbitration. N. C. Hayhurst, W. Allen Schellen and R. L. Quigley constitute the membership of the board.

Boys in the sixth grade and under will play in the elementary league and those in the seventh and eighth grades will belong to the intermediate league. In schools where all the grades are in one building, a boy in the lower grades who makes the team will be allowed to play in the intermediate league.

Superintendent R. L. Quigley declares that the present season is due in the main to the quick co-operation shown by the various school principals, and that the playgrounds department could not have succeeded in its efforts without the efforts of the principals.

Jeffrey, former commissioner of horticulture, were in Fresno last night en route to the vineyards of Reedley, Dinuba and Parlier to investigate the strange disease which was recently reported to the state viticulture office. Prof. Bionelli stated that the party expected to spend at least two days in the vineyards gathering data, and would not be able to make any statement regarding the disease until later.

TO REGULATE PRICE OF BREAD IN STATE

Cal. Master Bakers Send Agent to Fresno; 80 Per Cent Favor Move

In an effort to bring about a standard price and weight for loaves of bread throughout the state, John Foley, secretary of the Master Bakers' Association of San Francisco, canvassed the various master bakers of Fresno yesterday and secured their unanimous consent to the arrangement. Foley is on a tour of the state in the interest of the State Master Bakers' Association and according to a statement made by him to G. W. Burwell, part owner of the Home Bakery, he has already secured the consent of the master bakers to enforce in this state the law requiring a standard weight of 12 and 24 ounces for loaves of bread.

"The law has been put into force here in Fresno," said Burwell, "and there is no reason why it should not be enforced at other points. It has already caused an increase in the price of bread and there will soon have to be another increase."

PLAN MASS MEETING TO TALK 8-HOUR DAY

Union Men Want Shorter Hours for Public Employees

Tentative plans for a general public meeting to discuss the proposed eight-hour day for all county and city employees is the scheme of the members of the Building Trades and the Labor Council of Fresno. Some time ago a joint committee of three members from each body was appointed to call on the county supervisors and the city trustees to get their views on the matter. The labor men said that the replies were unsatisfactory from their viewpoint and that they would ask the public's aid.

The work has been abandoned for the winter because of the heavy snows and all of the men have left the mountains.

OPTOMETRIST IS AGAIN ARRESTED

Judge Graham yesterday issued a warrant for G. Warren Chester of Solom, who is charged with practicing optometry without a license. Chester has appeared before Judge Graham on the same charge and has never been found guilty of the charge. Inspector Ben Cohn swore to the complaint.
